

Unit: Mother's Day

This week's unit will be a little different. It is all about honoring your mother. There are several crafts ideas to help you honor your mother Sunday, 5-10-2020, for Mother's Day. Pick one or complete them all. Have fun and spoil your mother on Mother's Day!

Unit Bible Memory Verse(s): Exodus 20:12

"Why Children Should Memorize Scripture" is an article that gives four reasons why it is important for children to memorize scripture.

Why Children Should Memorize Scripture

Mother's Day Teapot Card

Make your mother a teapot card fabulously decorated by you! Download the template from Think Crafts website and embellish your teapot with items you find around the house or nature items from your backyard. You can even add a real teabag so that you mother can have a relaxing cup of tea on Mother's Day.

Mother's Day Handprint Card

This card is perfect for little ones. Every mother loves gifts that feature her child or children's hands. The following YouTube video illustrates how to make this simple craft.

Easy Egg Carton Art on Canvas

If you are an older kid and you love to create art, this is the craft for you. From an old egg carton, you can create an inexpensive masterpiece that your mother will love!

Homemade Bath Salts

If your mother loves to take relaxing baths, this is the craft for you. You can make homemade bath salts for her next bathroom getaway with the simple recipe on the Spruce Crafts website.

French Toast Kebabs

Whose mother won't enjoy breakfast in bed on Mother's Day? Combine cooking with art by surprising your mother with these French toast kebabs.

Three Mother's Day Breakfasts Kids Can Make

This is an instructional video for kids by a kid named, Avery. She shows you how to create three delicious dishes step-by-step. Your mother will be amazed that you did this yourself!

Painted Pasta Necklace

Mom would be proud to wear this piece of homemade jewelry. The painted pasta necklace is easy to create and fun to complete.

Yarn Wrapped Cardboard Letters

Any mom would love to display her initial that you make with this super cute and easy craft.

Pressed Flowers

If your mother is a nature lover, this beautiful craft is for you.

Mother's Day Mason Jar Votive

Show mom that she lights up your life with this craft.

